

Beverly Samanth Laramore was born a December Capricorn in Nassau Bahamas. She was privileged to have experienced growing up both in Nassau and on the Family Island. With such a colorful foundation Beverley graduated from High school with such honors as Class Valedictorian, Head Girl, Bahamas Ambassador to the USA at the Hugh O'Brien Youth Leadership Conference (HOBY), Alpha Kappa Alpha Essay competition winner, Drug Free Achievers President and many other accolades.

Furthering her education at the College of the Bahamas, Ms. Laramore obtained a double major Associates of Arts Degree in Accounting and Management and won the title of Miss College of the Bahamas 1997. Upon graduating from the College of The Bahamas, Beverley continued her education at (FIU) Florida International University in Florida where she obtained her Bachelor's Degree in Accounting.

After graduation, Ms. Laramore gained work experience in the USA before returning home and opening her own business at the age of 29. She is the proud owner of Paradis Restaurant & Bar on the island of San Salvador. She is actively involved in her community where she holds the positions of President of the Cancer Society San Salvador Branch from 2010 to present, President of the Holy Saviour and Holy Cross Catholic Parishes Council from 2013 to present, Elected Council Member of San Salvador Local Government District Council 2014 to present, Board Member of the Cancer Society of the Bahamas from 2018 to present and numerous other organizations.

I am happily single without any entanglements.
