

Mrs. C. Dianne Bingham is a practitioner in the Financial Services Industry for more than thirty years, has served in various Senior Roles as Director Private Client Group at a major international bank and trust company and Vice President and Head of Trust and Fiduciary of another international bank and trust company. Currently Mrs. Bingham is Managing Director of Leno Trust Ltd. a local fully Bahamian owned company.

As a practitioner in the trust industry she has had responsibility for the growth and expansion of local financial services sector specifically the trust industry, development of policies and practices in accordance with legislation and regulations, review of the Trustee Act in 2011, implementation of best standards and practices for conduct of trust business, both locally and regionally.

A former Director of the Bahamas Financial Services Board, a recipient of the Bahamas Financial services Professional of the Year award, co-chair Canada Caribbean Emerging Youth Leaders (CCELD), a member of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP), Director STEP Caribbean Limited, Standing Member of its Caribbean Conference Planning Committee and a recipient of STEP's prestigious Founders Award in 2017.

Mrs. Bingham is a member of St. Georges Anglican church where she serves on its Finance Committee. Her hobbies include gardening and sewing.