

Dr. DuVaughn E. Curling graduated Cum Laude from Hampton University earning his Bachelor of Science Degree in Biology. He then went on to Temple University School of Medicine where he earned his Doctorate.

Upon completing his medical degree, Dr. Curling completed his secondary training at the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey, Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital; there he completed his residency in Internal Medicine and Fellowship in Hematology and Oncology. Dr. Curling is board certified in Internal Medicine, Hematology and Oncology.

After completing his training in 2004, Dr. Curling returned to Nassau where he became a consultant in Hematology and Medical Oncology with the Public Hospitals Authority (PHA) and presently has been appointed Acting Director of the Division of Oncology. He is also a partner in the practice of Oncology Consultants, Ltd. located on Nassau Street.

Dr. Curling is very active with the Medical Association of The Bahamas and other Civic Groups. As a primary investigator on several clinical trials in Oncology, Dr. Curling is contributing to the advancement of cancer care not only in The Bahamas, but throughout the world promoting cancer awareness and screening programs.

Dr. Curling is married with two children.